Dear Dr. Leamer:

I am very sorry that when your letter of 9 July 1954 came to my office you were not advised that I was going to be away for a few weeks. I have just this day returned and hasten to say that I think that we may be able to guide Mr. Wigington's assignment after he completes his basic military training. For this reason I suggest that you forward to me the information you had asked Mr. Wigington to supply as per the third paragraph of your letter.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
